

Lomitan Is Honored On 85th Year

LOMITA.—I. A. Paddock celebrated his 85th birthday, December 30, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Anderson, son, Frank, and daughter, Elizabeth, surprised him by bringing a birthday dinner with them. Other friends dropped in during the evening to congratulate him and cards were enjoyed.

Mr. Paddock was born in Ohio but spent his boyhood in Wisconsin. Later he moved to Minnesota where he married Anna Hansen, who died five years ago. Thirty-six years ago he moved to Riverside, California, and 20 years ago to Lomita.

And he wouldn't live anywhere but in California if you gave him the state!

Never Bothered About Rules
As a boy he was of slight and frail build and was told he would never live to be an old man so he has never bothered making any rules for living to a ripe old age. He chopped down a tree or two on his birthday, cut up the wood, and worked about his two acres where he boasts, he hasn't a sprig of devil grass.

He was guest of honor Christmas day at his son's, John J. Paddock, in Los Angeles, at a turkey dinner, and ate his share of roast goose at his daughter's, Mrs. J. R. Strachan's, New Year's day. And he didn't pass up any cake or pie either!

K. OF P. INSTALL

LOMITA.—A large attendance of relatives and friends witnessed the installation Monday evening of Lomita Lodge No. 359, Knights of Pythias. The installation took place in Odd Fellows hall. Frederick H. Budge succeeded J. R. Warmoth as chancellor commander.

LOMITA Briefs

LOMITA.—Gene Weber, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Weber of Oak street, has been very ill with influenza.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Bryant recently, were Mrs. William Knuth of San Francisco, Chester King and son of Seattle.

Mrs. Alwina Ullman has returned to Lomita from Santa Monica and has reopened her studio at 1608 Narbonne.

Warner Wilcox of Piedmont spent the holidays with his mother, Mrs. Bertha Wilcox, and his sister, Eva May.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Crittenden over the holidays were their daughter, Mrs. William Smith of La Grand, son, Elmer O. Crittenden, and family of Sacramento.

Mrs. Aileen of Pennsylvania was hostess to the Lomita Cosmos at their annual Christmas party. The evening was spent in a social manner, the usual program being omitted. On January 20, the club will celebrate its seventh birthday at the home of Birda Paddock.

Mr. and Mrs. Willis Martin entertained at a bridge dinner New Year's eve, guests being Mr. and Mrs. Homer Lamport, Dr. and Mrs. G. A. Fuller, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Mosher, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Smith, and Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Sneed.

Members of the Christian Endeavor spent New Year's day at Camp Baldy enjoying snow sports. They were accompanied by L. J. Hunter, Harry Haslam and E. M. Mosher.

New Milestone

D. S. C. MacNeill, supervising consul for England on the western coast of Mexico, as he sailed from Los Angeles to begin his second quarter of a century as Great Britain's principal representative in that territory. With Mrs. MacNeill, he has lived in Colima, Mexico, for 25 years, after which they came to the United States "for a vacation."

Branch Library Report Shows Lomita People Like To Read

LOMITA.—Figures for December show a heavy increase of circulation at the branch library. Adult fiction numbered 1228; non fiction 164; juvenile fiction, 548; non fiction, 57; magazines, 143. The circulation has doubled during the past year, and the number of card holders has increased in about the same proportion. For the new year, the librarian, Mrs. Ella Cline, has received about a hundred new books.

The magazine list is a very fine one and is very well patronized. Many technical books are being taken out.

Now, while many people have more time to read because of lack of steady work, many are studying along lines that will help them in hobbies in which they were interested but never found time to cultivate.

The improved service of the library, being open now every afternoon and every evening except Wednesdays and Sundays, is also appreciated by the patrons.

150 At Community Dinner New Year's Harbor City Event

HARBOR CITY.—Sponsored by the Careful Drivers of America, the community dinner served New Year's day was attended by 150 persons. The dinner was given by George E. Preston, accompanied by Mrs. Preston. Piano numbers were given by Carroll and Helen Smith.

Following the dinner Mr. Preston made a talk on careful driving. This was followed by a skit in which Old Man Trouble was found responsible for all the misfortunes of the old year and was thrown out the window. He hit with a bang, being constructed of cans, rocks, straw and junk, while the crowd sang, "Pack up your troubles in the old kit bag."

Mrs. A. B. Rozell was chairman for the dinner and she was ably assisted by Mesdames C. T. Jeter, E. L. Payne, L. S. Severson, Nell Haynes, Frank Cheek, Mary Hobbs, R. C. Cessna, A. L. Titus, E. B. Clark, George E. Preston, Chris Jones, Elmer Jensen, L. E. Bennett, M. M. Nelson and Messrs. A. B. Rozell, E. L. Payne, C. F. King, George E. Preston, O. L. Henry and J. T. Magee.

Narbonne Given Editorial Award

LOMITA.—Narbonne was elated when it received the certificate awarding the Green and Gold, high school paper, first place in class A, editorial section, at the Southern California Press convention.

Miss Anna Marie Busse was the writer of the winning editorial, her subject being, "Absences." Her editorial received the high rating of 9.6. The 1931 El Eco, Narbonne annual, received second place in the year book class, South Pasadena winning first.

at Narbonne High School

Commencement will be held January 21 with Arthur W. Eckman as speaker. The annual vesper service for both winter and summer classes will be held in the high school auditorium, Sunday, January 17.

A and B basketball teams play at El Segundo Friday, while the C and D teams play at Narbonne.

Thursday, January 7, is seniors "dressup day" and in the evening they will have a party in the cafeteria.

LOMITANS DEFEATED

LOMITA.—The Coca Cola club defeated the Lomita Merchants, 8 to 3, last Sunday after garnering the same number of hits to the Merchants' three. Yelovich struck out 11 Coca Colans but allowed three bases on balls.

Russells Observe Golden Anniversary

HARBOR CITY.—Married 50 years ago in Maryhill, Scotland, on New Year's eve, Mr. and Mrs. John Russell of 2054 25th street, observed their golden anniversary with a dinner at their home. Children and grandchildren living in California were seated at the table while messages and gifts from the children further away bore their congratulations.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell have lived in Harbor City ten years. They have seven children, 32 grandchildren, and one great grandchild.

Last Rites Dec. 27 For Mrs. M. Poggi

HARBOR CITY.—Funeral services were held at the Little Church of the Flowers, Forest Lawn, Monday morning, December 27, for Mrs. Mamie Poggi, wife of Alice Poggi, pioneer of this district. The Poggi family moved to Glendale several years ago. Mrs. Poggi had been in poor health but her death Christmas day was unexpected. She leaves besides her husband, four children, Grace, Elmer, Rowland and Earl. A number of Harbor City residents attended the services.

HAMMACK SHINES
LOMITA.—Harold Hammack, football star at Narbonne in his High school days, did some fine playing for U. S. C. in the last half of the game New Year's day against Tulane. Hammack graduates this year.

Members of the Lomita P. T. A. held a benefit bridge luncheon at the home of Mrs. G. S. Evans on Lucille street Tuesday. This was one of the series of benefits being given this year at the homes of members.
